

POST OFFICE

TELEGRAM

TO:

Second Lieutenant Frederick Alvin Sproston, only son of the Tannery,
Middlewich was killed in action on 29th of July 1918.

His character is shown in his last words to one of his men, when he fell mortally wounded.
"Tell them at home it isn't much".

Great sympathy is expressed to his bereaved parents and sisters.

FROM: Secretary, War Office
